

School Committees Report: School Committee Public Forum and Information Session Schedule

Members of the School Committees are committed to providing members of the public with information regarding upcoming warrant articles at Concord and Carlisle's Town Meetings. They have scheduled a series of information sessions, public tours of the Concord Middle School (CMS) buildings, and public forums to allow residents to gather information, ask questions, and engage with School Committee members regarding the CMS feasibility study as well as the Concord-Carlisle High School's Loop Road repair, lighting, and parking article.
